Output:

Explanation:

1. This web page introduces team members with their photos, names, and roles.
2. The layout is created using HTML for structure and CSS for styling.
3. A flexbox container is used to align all team members in a row neatly.
4. Each team member is displayed inside a styled card with rounded corners and shadows.
5. The design is simple, clean, and easily customizable for real team details or company use.
